Press Release - February 17, 2000

Tiger International Resources Inc. (TGR.V) announces the appointment of Dr. Michael Marchand of Calgary, Alberta, as a director of Tiger International Resources.

Dr. Marchand is a professional geologist with broad diamond and mineral exploration experience, and has served as the president and director of several successful resource companies in Canada. His association began with Tiger five years ago when he assisted the company as a consultant, and he is familiar with the company's diamond exploration program in Australia having advised Tiger management regarding the project since its inception.

Mr. Peter McKeown, having served as a director of Tiger for over five years, has resigned to devote his time to other business interests. Mr. McKeown has guided the company well, and Tiger management and staff support him in his growing interests.

Tiger International Resources is a diamond exploration and development company with a 5,500 sq. kms diamond project in the Flinders Ranges area of South Australia. As of January 31, 2000, Tiger's expenditure totaled A$1,300,000 on the project.
